CHARLIGHT

Presented by the Class of 1961

ST. CHARLES HIGH SCHOOL

Detroit, Michigan

Dedication

To you, Our Lady of the United States, we dedicate the 1961 Charlight. We beg you to bless us, our homes, our cherished country.

Mary, guard our land.

Keep us, your children, from harm.

The harm we bring upon ourselves

When we disobey the dictates of our Father

Who granted us, His children,

The wide expanse of this fruitful land

Clothed in beauty of dark green forests,

Rolling hills, rainbow-streaked mountains,

Deep blue and foamy white-capped inland lakes,

Refreshing, restful, babbling brooks and streams,

Fields golden with rippling grain, sweet-scented trees.

Whose branches bend under the weight of lush fruits,

Rich ore deposits hidden beneath the terrain--

And our unmerited prosperity

Conducive to high material standards of living.

Our Lady of the United States, enkindle in us

As a nation, humble thanks and adoration for our God.

Teach us love for fellowman according to our Father's law.

LITURGY

We shall discover the life of the liturgy in proportion as we bring life to it, by a real desire to love God with our whole hearts and a willingness to pay the sweet price of that love, which is the immolation of ourselves in union with Christ by seeking God's good pleasure in everything and desiring nothing else for its own sake.

The Mass and You

The Sacrifice of the Mass is the only true and perfect sacrifice, for the victim and the priest are the same, Christ Our Lord. The redeeming sacrifice and death of our Savior is continually shown forth and re-enacted in Christ's own body and blood at every Mass, "Do this in remembrance of me." When we pray the Mass, uniting ourselves with the priest and with Christ, we are participating in the most effective prayer. Through the Mass we adore God, thank Him for His benefits, ask His pardon, and beg for His graces. It is Christ crucified who pleads for us in every Sacrifice.

10th Annual Observance

NATIONAL CATHOLIC YOUTH WEEK - OCT. 30 - NOV. 6

RETREAT... January 24, 25, and 26

Excerpts... Father J.J. Samonie

THEME: "Come follow Me....I am the way, the truth, the life."

Retreat is a time to focus our sights on our purpose in life: "to know, love, and serve God." Everything else comes second. You are never the same after a Retreat. Either you become better or worse depending on how well you co-operate with God's graces. When your soul is not in the state of grace, it is like a dead battery or a bulb without electricity. It can't do any good whatsoever.

One of the greatest helps during temptation is prayer...because you cannot pray and sin at one and the same time.

God knows your needs long before you ask, but He never helps anyone who is too proud to pray. Don't think that you have to be very, very good in order to go to Holy Communion. No one is really worthy to receive God. Rather, when you are in the state of grace, you may go to Communion to be good and to stay good. It is both food and medicine for the soul.

Even Napoleon once appreciated the value of Holy Communion. When he was at the peak of his fame, but away from his religion, his soldiers asked him one day what was the happiest day of his life. They expected him to speak of the Bridge of Lodi, or the battle of Austerlitz or Lombardy. Instead Napoleon replied: "The happiest day of my life was when I made my first Holy Communion."

A mature personality is a good personality. It means being kind, understanding, responsible, and loyal to one's work at home or in school. These are some sure signs of maturity. Obedience does not tie you down. The very opposite is true. When YOU obey everything goes along fine. Disobey and you get punished. For example, it is only when a driver constantly disobeys the traffic law that his license is taken away...that his freedom to drive is forfeited.

Anyone who loves Christ loves His Mother. Her favorite prayer is the Hail Mary. Don't mumble your way through this beautiful prayer. If you're not paying attention and don't realize that you are saying, neither will She.

Just as a diploma is a proof of graduation, so too Our Lord offered this as a proof of love for Him: "If you love Me, keep My Commandments."

We listened carefully... We prayed fervently... We reflected well.

BENEDICTION... The "highlight" of a good retreat.
O Sacrament most holy, O Sacrament Divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine.

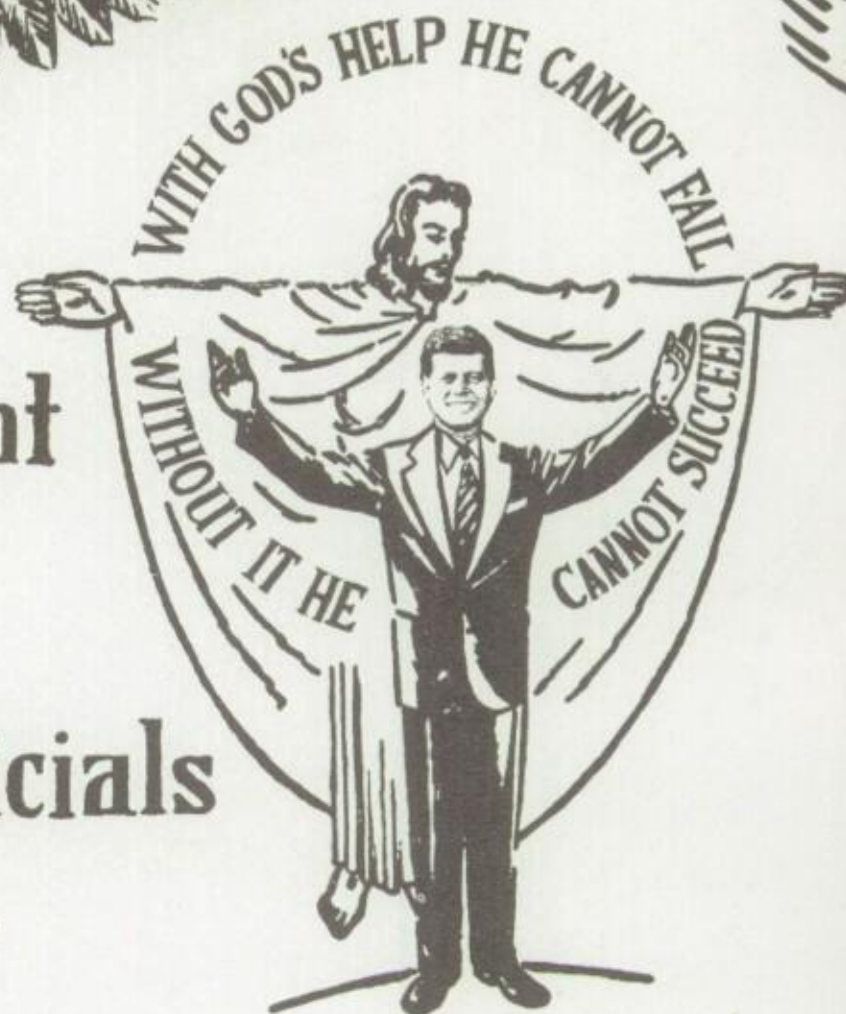

St. Anthony knows each penitent; he sees them often.

Prayer for our President and Government Officials

Abridged from a prayer composed by Archbishop Carroll A.D. 1800, for the United States of America

We pray Thee, O almighty and eternal God, who through Jesus Christ hast revealed Thy glory to all nations, to preserve the works of Thy mercy; that Thy Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue, with unchanging faith, in the confession of Thy name.

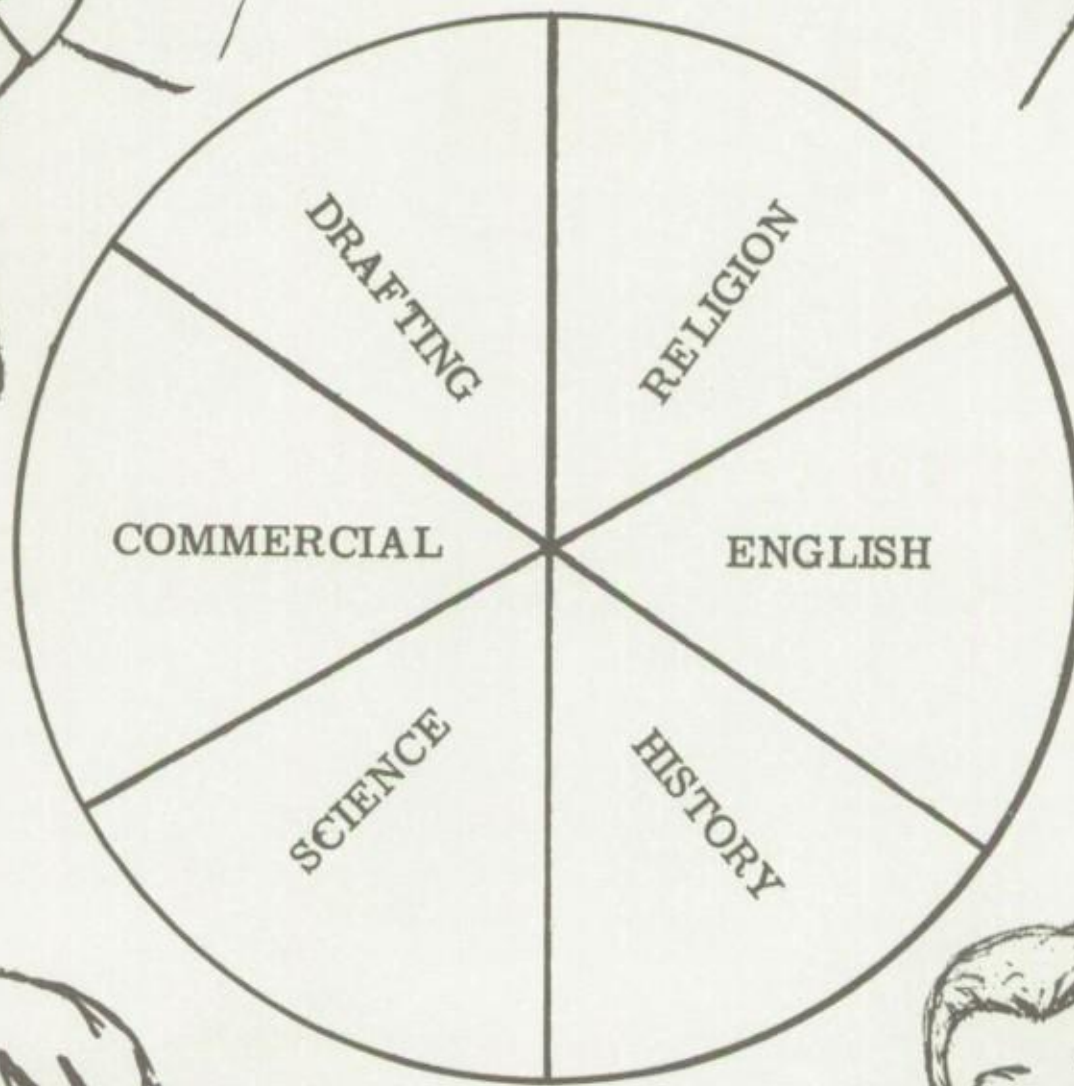

We pray Thee, O God of might, wisdom, and justice, through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment decreed, assist, with Thy Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude, the President of these United States, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness, and be eminently useful to Thy people over whom he presides, by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy; and by restraining vice and immorality. Let the light of Thy divine wisdom direct the deliberations of the Congress, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our rule and government; so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge, and may perpetuate to us the blessings of equal liberty.

We pray for his Excellency the Governor of this State, for the members of the Assembly, for all judges, magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare; that they may be enabled, by Thy powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and ability.

We recommend likewise to Thy unbounded mercy all our brethren and fellow-citizens, throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge, and sanctified in the observance of Thy most holy law; that they may be preserved in union and in that peace which the world cannot give; and, after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.

FIRST FRIDAY- Victoria Sanchez recites the Promises of the Sacred Heart. William Bacon waits his turn.

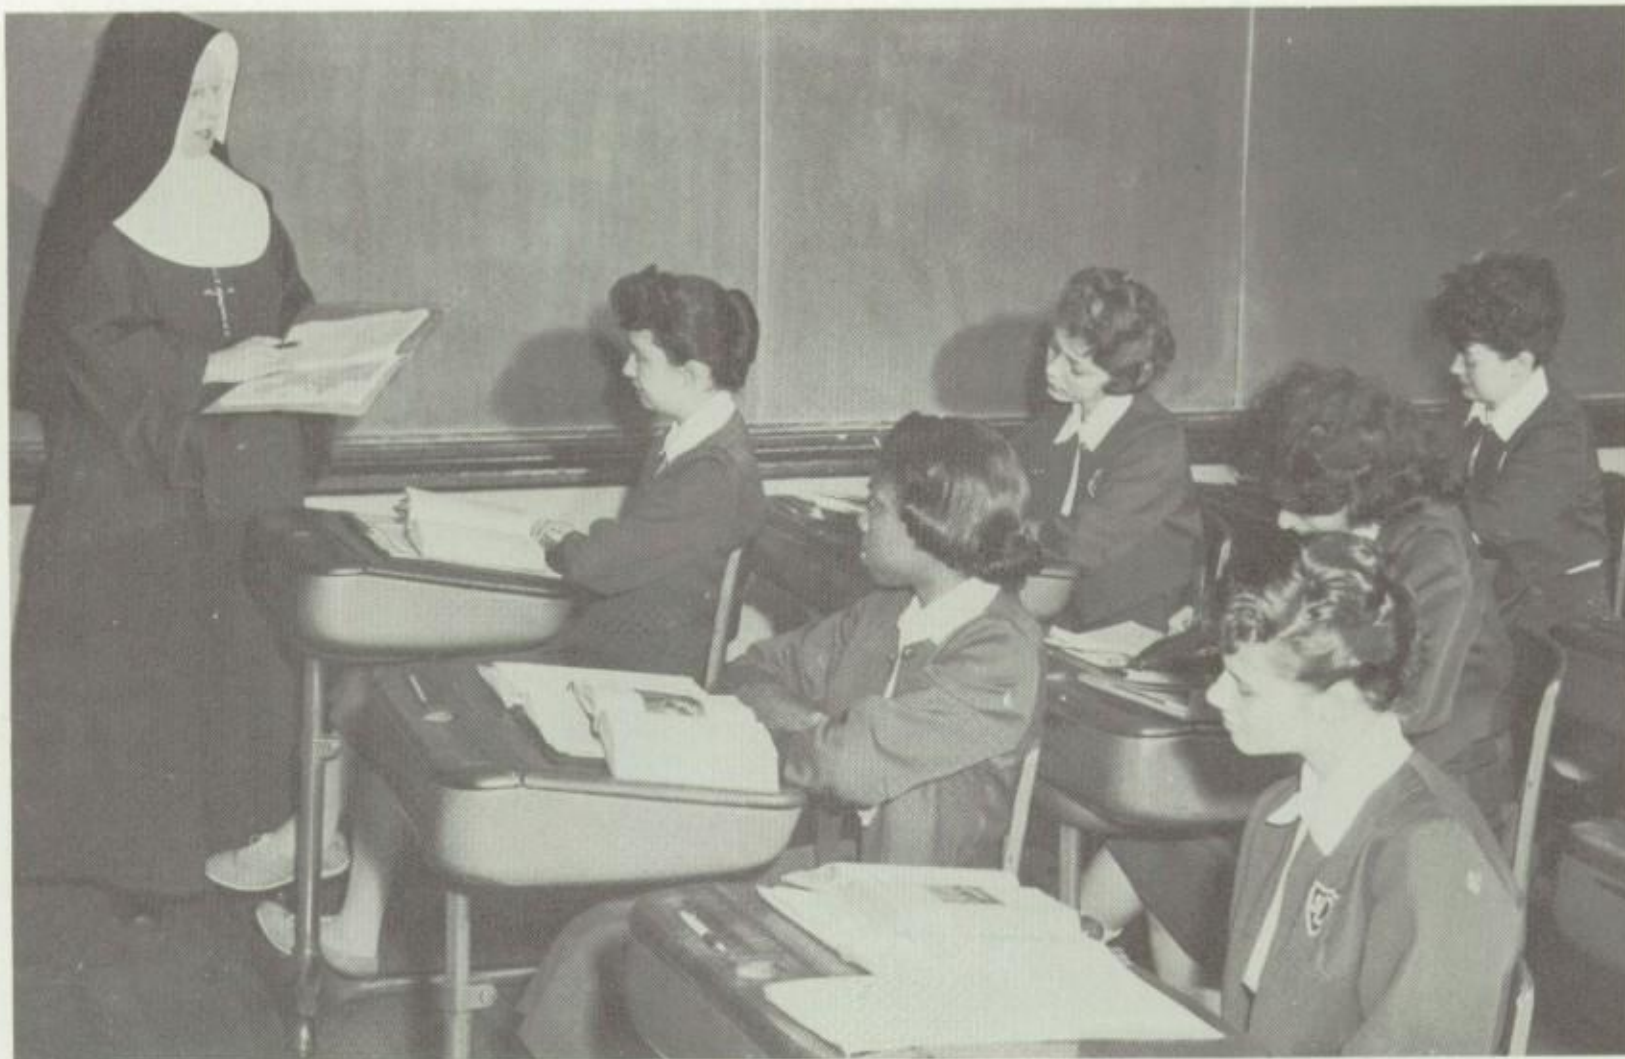

The Promises of Our Lord
Made to Saint Margaret Mary for souls devoted to His Sacred Heart

1. "I will give them all the graces necessary in their state of life."
2. "I will establish peace in their homes."
3. "I will comfort them in all their afflictions."
4. "I will be their secure refuge during life, and above all in death."
5. "I will bestow a large blessing upon all their undertakings."
6. "Sinners shall find in My Heart the source and the infinite ocean of mercy."
7. "Tepid souls shall grow fervent."
8. "Fervent souls shall quickly mount to high perfection."

9. "I will bless every place where a picture of My Heart shall be set up and honored."
10. "I will give to priests the gift of touching the most hardened hearts."
11. "Those who shall promote this devotion shall have their names written in My Heart, never to be blotted out."
12. "I promise thee in the excessive mercy of My Heart that My all-powerful love will grant to all those who communicate on the First Friday in nine consecutive months the grace of final penitence; they shall not die in MY disgrace nor without receiving their Sacraments; My Divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment."

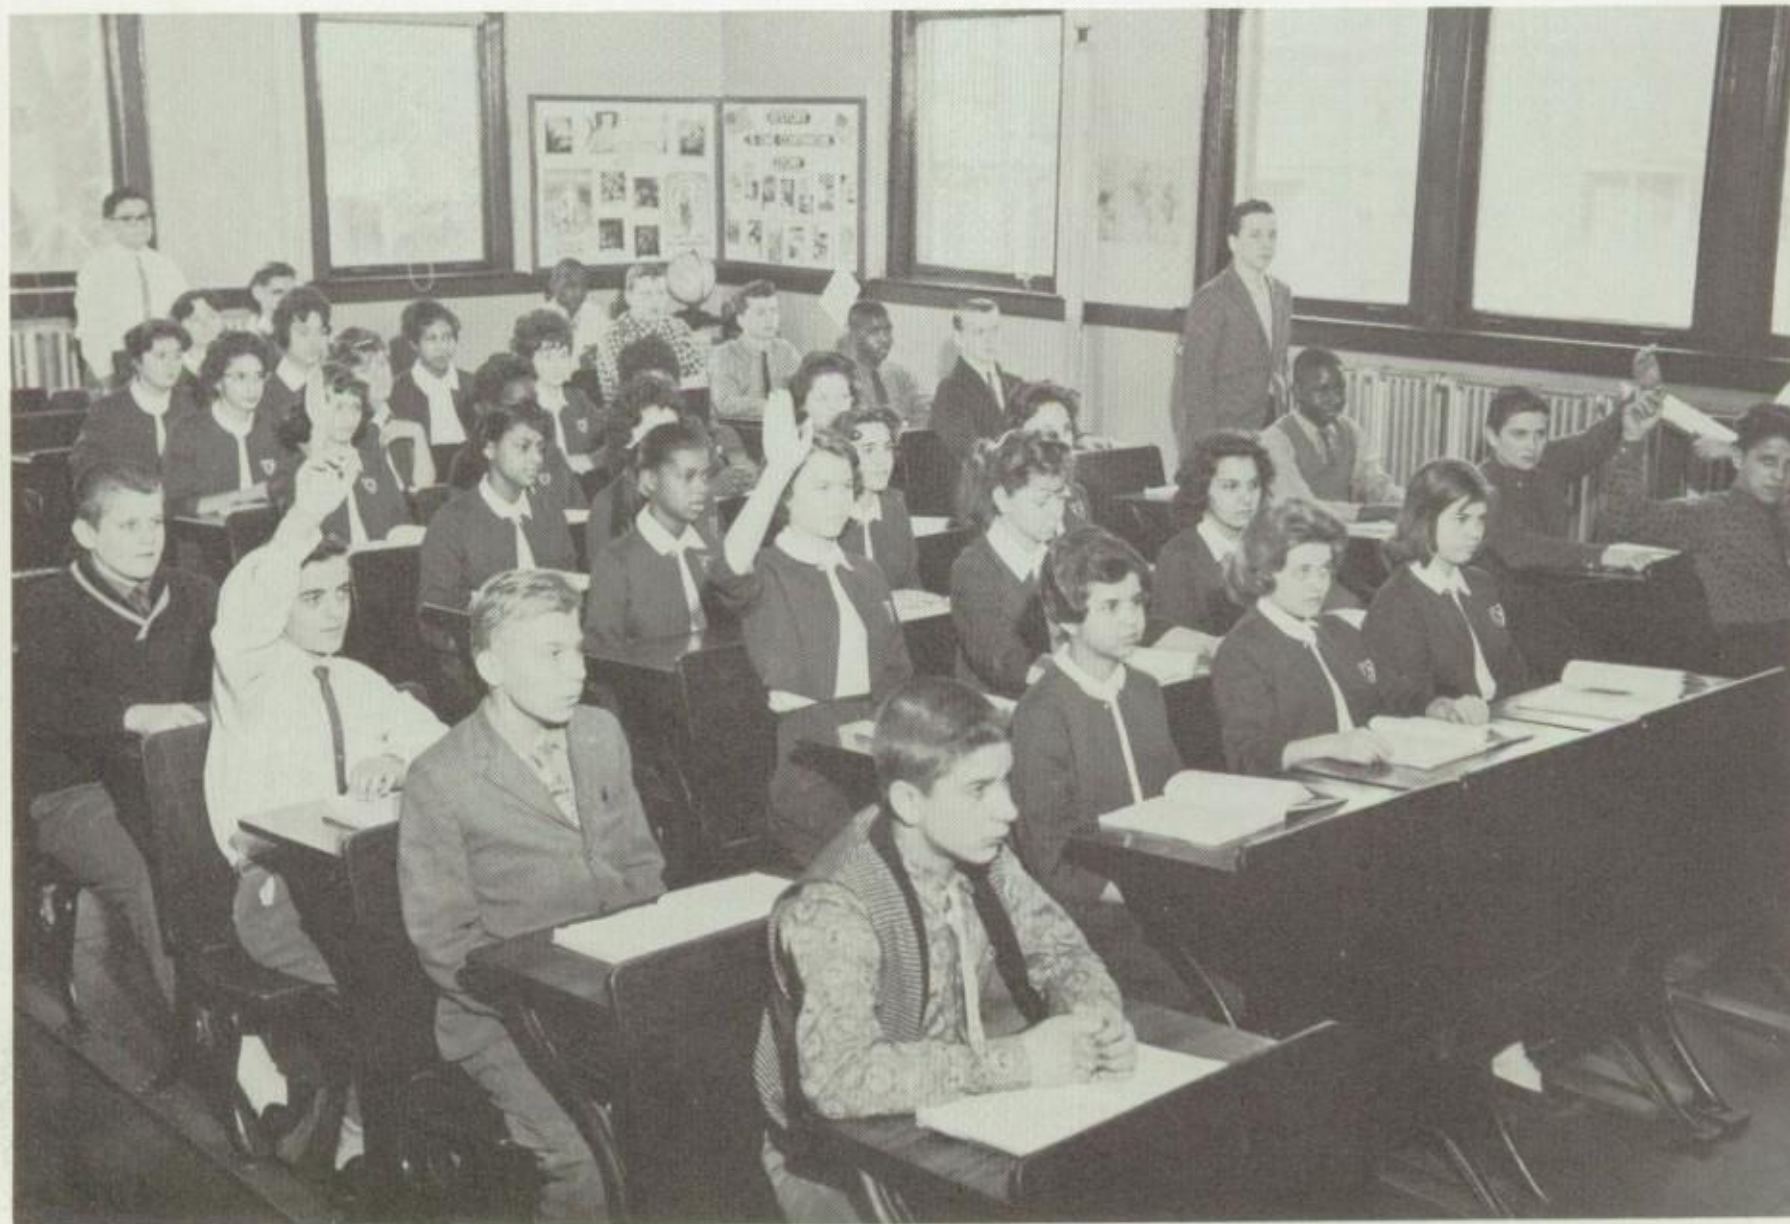

JUNIOR RELIGION

"This Church which Almighty God has founded on miracles, which is herself a continual miracle, this Church which necessarily pours out the greatest benefits over the universe, can be no other but the Roman Catholic Church."

FRESHMAN RELIGION

Religion is not just another subject--to be LEARNED; religion is a way of life----it includes prayer, belief, and the effort to keep the Ten Commandments. None of these duties can be omitted.

Historically Speaking

All kinds of people believe that the study of history is important and are constantly reminding us of that view every day of our lives. Some want us to study more American history so that we can know something of the glories of the American past and, taking pride in that past, become better, more loyal citizens.

As Americans, we pride ourselves that our roots gain their strength from the Christian-Judaeo traditions passed down to us through the philosophy of the Founding Fathers.

Others want us to study more world history so that we may know something of the thoughts and deeds of other peoples and thus come to have a greater sense of international brotherhood and good will.

MODERN HISTORY

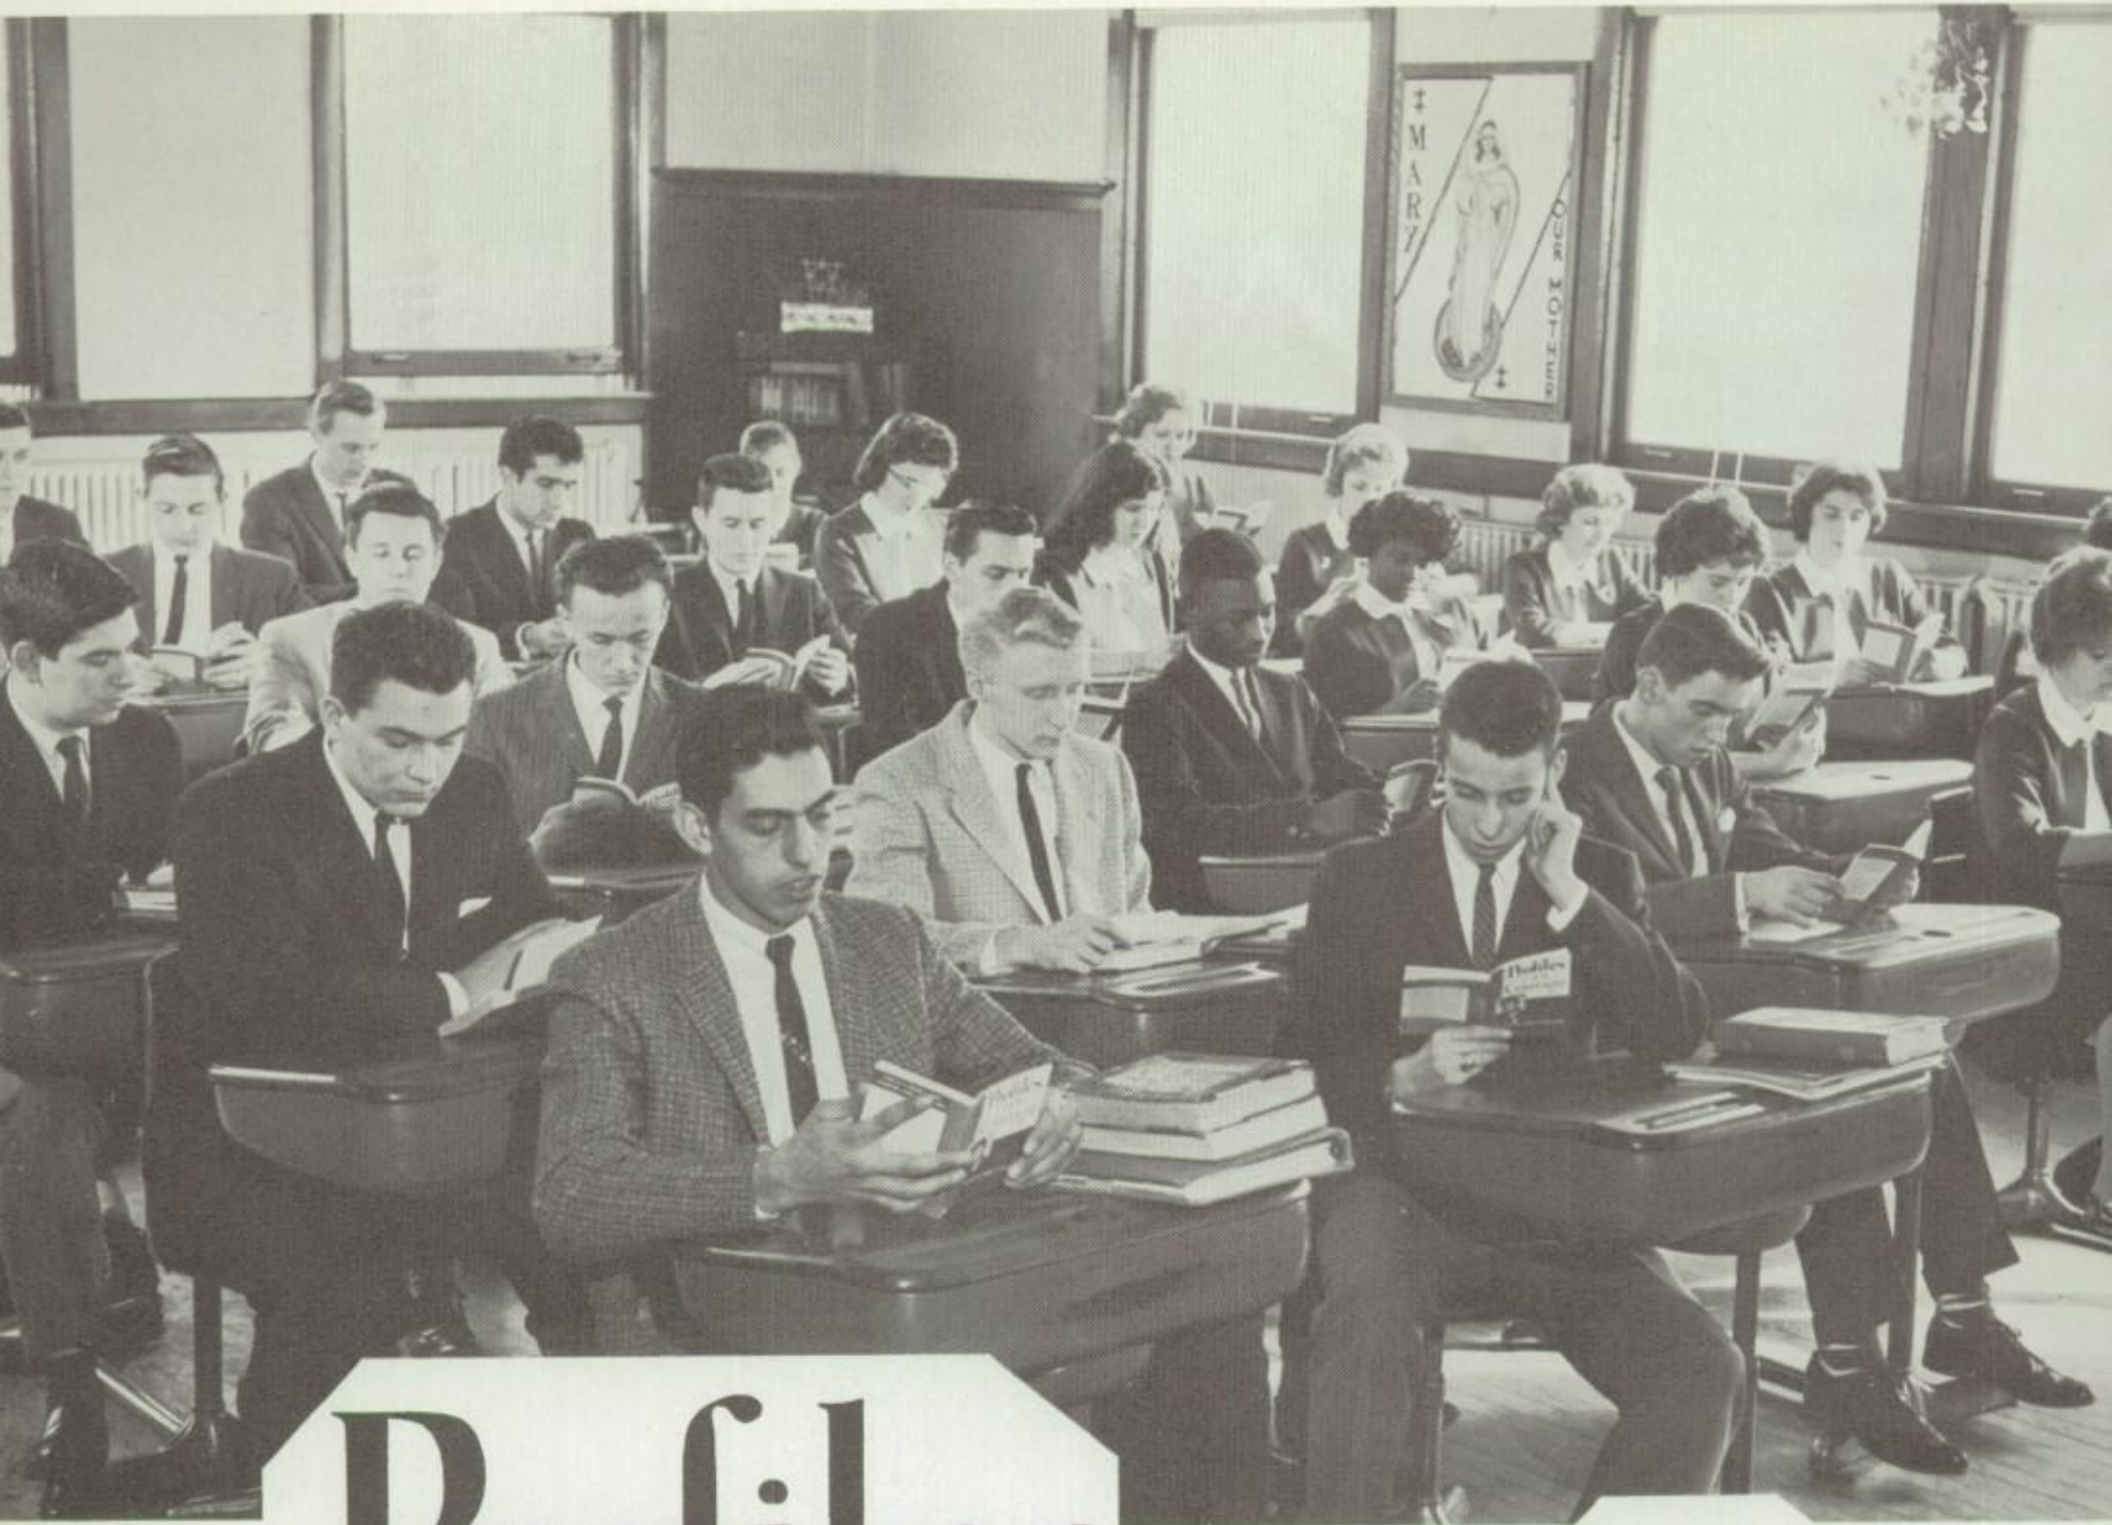

SENIOR AMERICAN HISTORY

In the realm of thought, western man has for long accepted the belief that the universe is both meaningful and purposeful. Belief in an ordered, purposeful universe has made man note that history follows a pattern of change by which he should continually better himself and his environment.

The richness of the Western history has been enhanced by the best of the Ancient world of Judaism, Greeks, Romans, and early Christianity. Man has developed confidence in himself and in his intellectual capacity which has helped him to achieve many of his greatest intellectual, scientific, and technological triumphs.

Historical knowledge is a living part of our thoughts, and it influences our acts. We all need to know history if we aspire to be educated and intelligent human beings with something more than vague feelings about the reasons why we are as we are, why and how we came to believe as we do.

SENIORS TAKE A LOOK

Thomas Hart Benton—"That flamboyant ego, for which he was both loved and despised, never deserted him."

Daniel Webster—"...No man on earth could be so great as he looked." (Below) Webster speaking on the 7th of March to "the greatest assemblage of Senators ever to gather in that Chamber."

Sam Houston—"The magnificent barbarian . . . no easy mark at the age of sixty-four."

Courage

Edmund G. Ross—"Consigned...to a political martyrdom, the most cruel in our history."

Lucius Q. C. Lamar—"The fatal dowry of genius was on that house."

AT ENGLISH IN ACTION

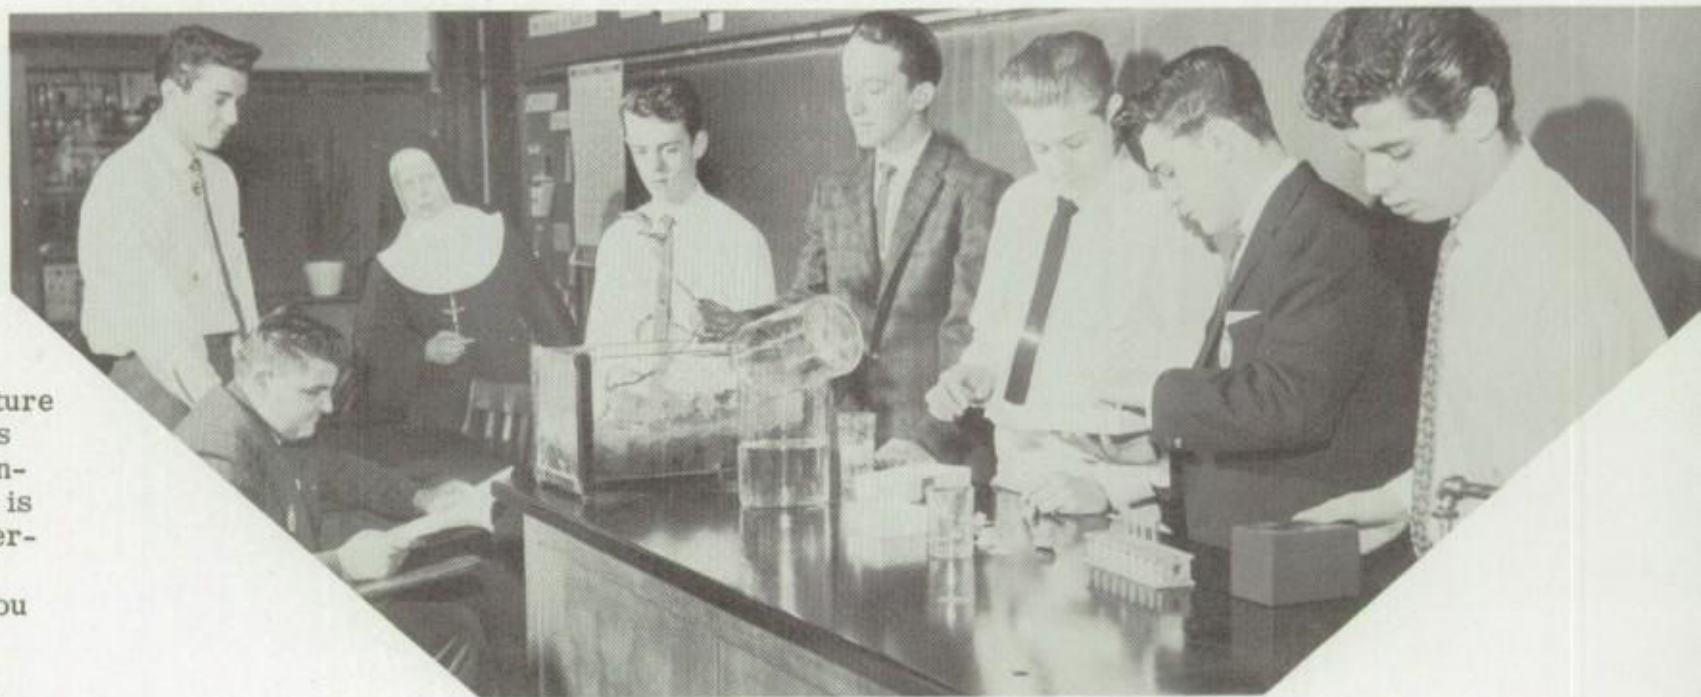

George W. Norris—"History asks, 'Did the man have integrity?'"

Robert A. Taft—"...A surprising and unusual personal charm combined with an unflinching courage."

MATHEMATICS has been called the queen and the handmaiden of the sciences.

BIOLOGY can give culture by adding more objects of interest and much information. This study is the basis for the conservation of natural resources. It can help you find your life work as many occupations and professions are based directly or indirectly on biology.

ELECTROSTATICS - how interesting to note the forces produced by electrified bodies. Special type of force? No, these forces obey the same laws of mechanics as all other forces. Light bodies are commonly used to show attraction because the forces involved are small.

Mike Fazzola seems to be telling a "fish story".

CHORAL

Our lives are songs: God writes the words,
And we set them to music at pleasure,

And the song grows glad, or sweet, or sad,
As we choose to fashion the measure.

What then is a classic? Let us summarize the basic traits of a great book:

1. It is a vital book, rich and penetrating in its portraiture of human nature.
2. It voices human questions and aspirations, sometimes answering the questions and pointing the way to the realization of our desires.

3. It transcends the bounds of time and place, triumphs over the alienating influence of different languages and divergent modes of thought.

4. It is mellowed by time, enriched through learned and human associations.

5. It is characterized by the beauty, the splendor of all great works of art.

6. The manner of its writing manifests the potency of the language in which it is written.

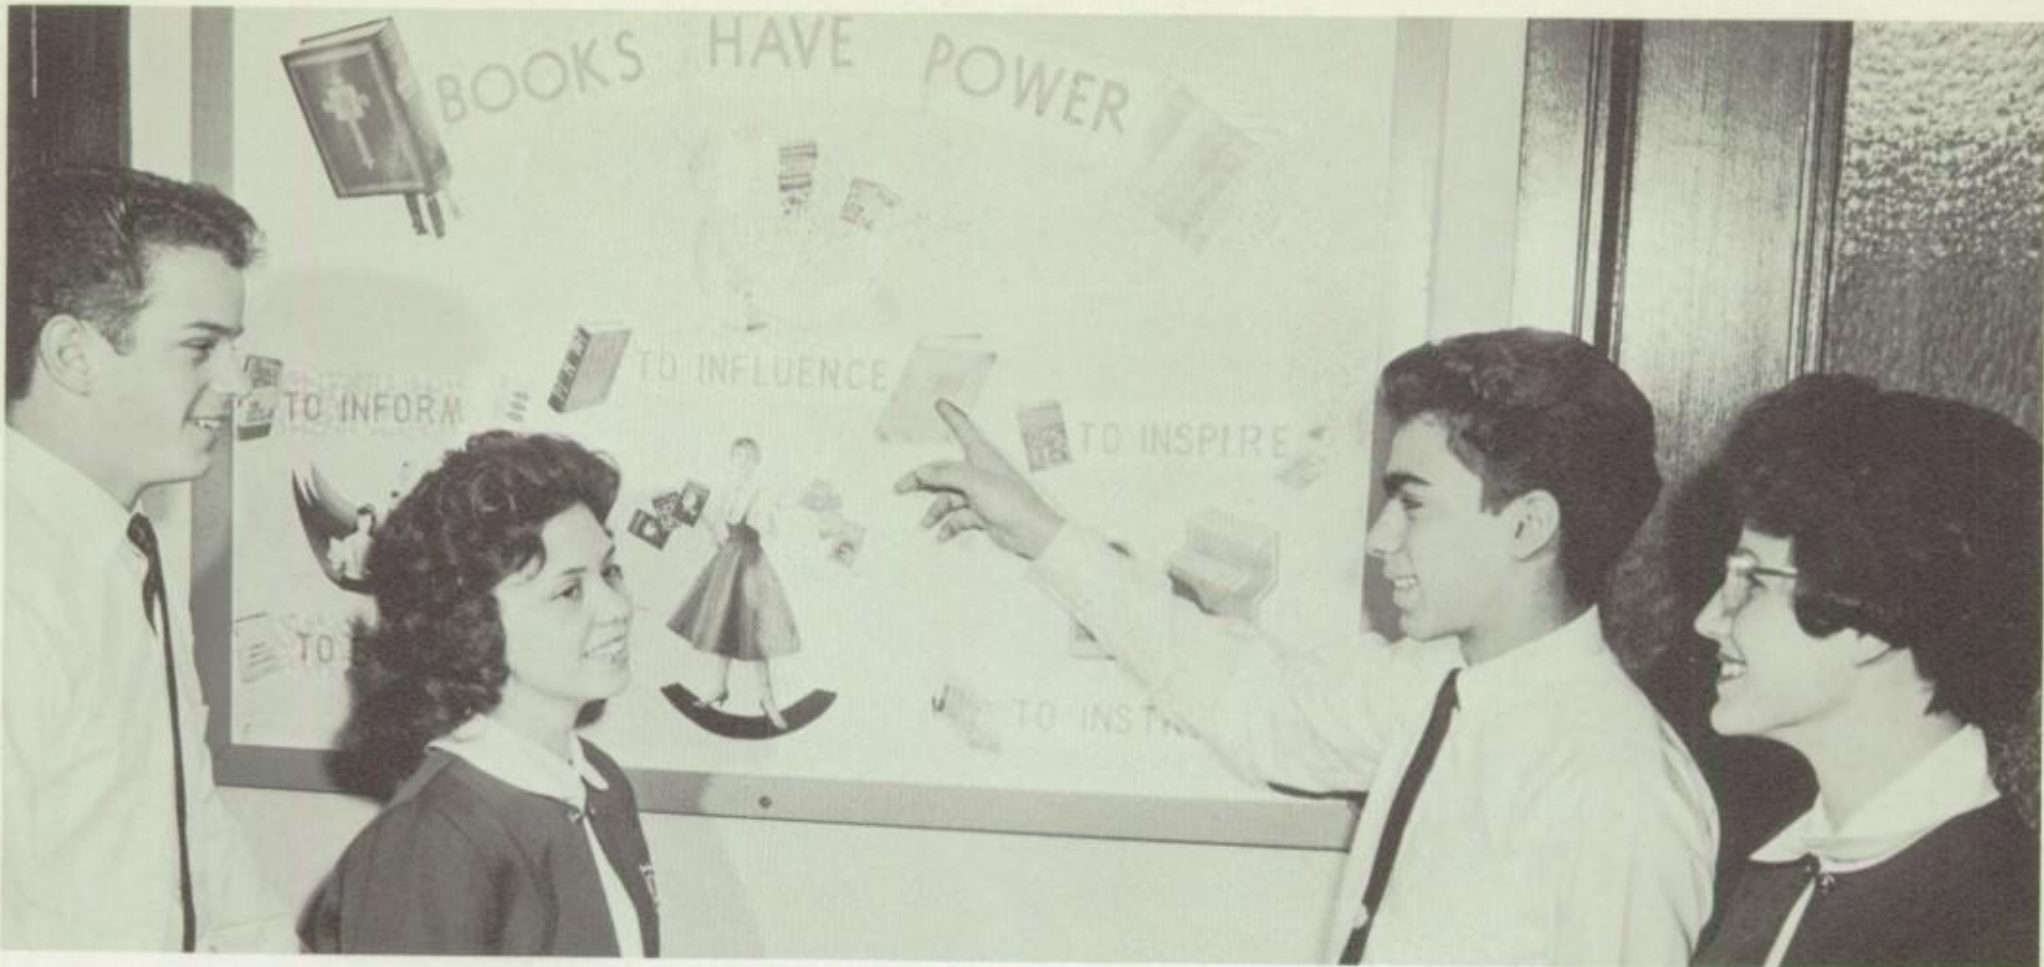

7. The classic is a book universally accepted as a touchstone of taste.

8. It is a repository of the European tradition of culture, keeping readers in vital communication with the roots of their civilization.

9. It is a book that is appreciated by both the mediocre and the learned reader.

10. It is a sanctuary of the spirit wherein God speaks to man, renews lost strength, restores his sense of values, freshens his emotional nature, refurbishes his ideals, enables him to see life steadily and as a whole.

"Take and read" is advice quite as good today as when the angel first offered it to St. Augustine.

An Athlete's Prayer

Frederick D. Tyner

Help me to play the game, dear Lord,
With all my might and main;
Grant me the courage born of right,
A heart to stand the strain . . .

Send me a sense of humor, Lord,
To laugh when victory's mine —
To laugh, if I should meet defeat,
Without a fret or whine . . .

Give me the grace to follow rules,
To 'fess up when I'm wrong,
When silence or the other thing
Wins plaudits from the throng . . .

When foes are tough and fighting fierce
And I am getting weak,
Dear God, don't ever let me show
A broad, bright, yellow streak.

And teach me, Lord, life's game to play
Just one day at a time —
With Thee as coach and trainer, Lord,
Real Victory must be mine.

RESPONSIBLE YOUTH AMERICA'S STRENGTH

How do you visualize the youth who measures up to the description implied in this year's Catholic Youth Week slogan? Do you immediately call to mind the intellectuals of your crowd? Or does your inner eye rest happily on the brawny muscles of the athletic hero as the real exemplar? Or maybe you are thinking of the popular, happy - go-lucky youth who gets along with everybody as the one who is so aptly described by the slogan.

In my estimation, you are all wrong--on your way to being right. You note one or two outstanding characteristics and jump to the conclusion that by "these signs" America's strength can be recognized. Have you ever learned (to your cost) what happens to these "one-attribute" people when they mature?

The intellectual who blocked out all but study while he was in school may reach heights of learning that only the few attain. He becomes so "intelligent" he's obnoxious...he puts himself on a level with His Creator. The person who goes to this extreme is in reality a notch lower than the most primitive pagan. The misguided pagan believes in a deity. Is your intellectual America's Strength? I would say he is Achilles's heel.

Then, you who admire the athletic hero who would be nothing if it weren't for sports...have you ever thought what might happen to your hero later on? He may go on to college (not too many do) or he may continue the "hero bit" for a time in pro football...soon the drama is over. What then? The crowds have ceased to cheer, his former acquaintances have forgotten him.

John Knaus, JoAnn Curtin, and Paul Brochert

FASHION SHOW - TUX

The Senior Boys find out what the "well-dressed" men should wear - to the Prom.

Accustomed to having everything handed to him on a silver platter, he has long ceased to help himself. Does this type of hero strike you as being America's Strength?

And you with your happy-go lucky friend. If popularity is his only asset how can he strengthen America? Communists wouldn't find much difficulty in taking over his America, no matter how many good jokes he knows.

America's Strength lies in "responsible youth". It lies in you if you are using your talents as God intended you to use them, be you first or last in your graduating class; in you who believe in God and would not hesitate to humble yourself by getting on your knees and praising Him; in you who would carry through your convictions against all opposition if you felt they were right; in you whose high moral principles are unaffected by your surroundings; in you who are the living, organic United States praying that the government "of the people, for the people, by the people" may ever increase in Strength.

Our Nation manned by responsible youth, when they have reached maturity, will be the strong right arm not only of the whole world.

THE SHIELD

IS GONE

Soon, young man, you will leave the spiritual guidance and protection you have been privileged to receive at St. Charles School.

The shield is gone, but Mother Church has provided other means to help you achieve the most--the only important goal of your existence---the salvation of your immortal soul.

Among these aids is the Holy Name Society, an organization dedicated solely to the spiritual growth of its members.

Certainly, you are invited to join our ranks, to devote your talents and youthful enthusiasm to the development of the supernatural "YOU."

"There's a girl I'd like to know"

"She has so much poise and confidence—I'll bet she works for the telephone company. Those girls are so attractive and have such friendly, pleasant manners."

They're talking about Lucy, who started working for Michigan Bell right out of high school. She was trained by friendly, understanding supervisors and today she's proud of her work; enjoys a fine salary, regular wage increases, and many new friends.

Lucy was delighted from the very first by the clean, pleasant surroundings, by the regularly scheduled mid-morning and midafternoon "breaks" for relaxing in comfortable lounge rooms, and by the opportunities for advancement.

Isn't that kind of job worth going after? Then why not get in touch with us—perhaps there's a telephone job for you. We'll be happy to talk with you about the interesting work at Michigan Bell.

A milestone's about to happen. Your graduation marks a decisive period in your life. Behind is an important, formative period of learning. And ahead? The course is yours to choose, whether it be more study or the start of a career. We at Michigan Consolidated Gas Company join friends and family in wishing you well in your new adventures... hoping that your new-worlds-to-conquer outlook never dims.

going to live better than  ever before... electrically!

The Home

Detroit Edison

You, today's graduate, are entering an exciting new era where you will live better than any generation has ever lived before—the era of all-electric living.

Your all-electric home for example, thanks to time-saving electric equipment and appliances, will allow you and your family more time to enjoy life together.

Your job will be smoother too. Electricity, in everything from office equipment to heavy machinery, will lighten your work—make it more enjoyable.

If you decide on further education, your field of study may well be related to electricity. Perhaps someday, as a scientist or technician, you will even lend your knowledge to further mold the all-electric world of tomorrow.

But wherever the future finds you, whatever your place in life, electricity will be there to help you live better than ever before—live better electrically.
